

BIRDS CARE FOR THEIR EGGS

ORDER, DESIGN, AND MEANING

Name _____

THEOLOGY OF THE BODY TIDBITS...

As part of God's loving design, animals instinctively take care of their young. Birds care for their eggs, then their hatchlings. Parents take care of their children because they love them. Remind your children how much you love them and point out the many ways you show that love when you care for them.