Unit Outlines/Overviews for 3-One Hour Lessons

GRADE 7 LESSON 1 — Unit 1: Man of Concupiscence Comprehension Questions & Answers Provided for Catechist

1. How did sin enter the world?
  - Our first parents, Adam and Eve, doubted God's love and generosity as well as God's desire for their happiness.
2. What relationships does sin break?
  - Sin breaks the human person's relationship with God, himself, others, and the world.
  - **Catechist Note: Due to sin entering the world, it is hard for human persons to show love, be a gift of self, in these different relationships.
3. Besides wounding relationships, how else are Adam and Eve affected by sin?
  - Due to sin, Adam and Eve experienced minds that are darkened and wills that are weakened. This means that it was hard for Adam and Eve to recognize the right thing to do and hard for them to choose the right thing to do in situations.
  - Due to sin, Adam and Eve experienced corruption in their bodies. They experienced a physical death, in which their souls separated completely from their bodies.
  - Adam and Eve experienced concupiscence.
4. What is concupiscence?
  - Concupiscence is the permanent wound in our nature that inclines us toward evil and weakens our will.
5. True/False: Now that sin has entered the world, human persons are totally corrupt. Explain your answer.
  - False
  - Human persons are not totally corrupt even though sin has entered the world because the original goodness of the human person remains. Even though we inherit the effects of the first sin, God's grace can bring us healing by redeeming us.
6. When we learn about Adam and Eve, we actually learn about all human persons. What can we learn about ourselves when it comes to living in a world where sin exists?
  - Human persons struggle to show love, be a gift of self, to God, themselves, other human persons, and the world.
  - Human persons struggle to recognize the good in a situation. This means we struggle to recognize the correct thing to do in situations.
  - Human persons struggle to choose the good in situations. This means we struggle to choose the correct thing to do in situations.

3. ACTIVITY: Minefield

Follow directions* on page 12 of Teacher's Guide & have students reflect on experience on page 23 of their commonplace book *(To make this activity take less time, feel free to have more than 2 teams).

4. SAINTS & HEROES: St. Mary Magdalene: Teacher's Guide pg. 13/Commonplace Book pg. 24 + student reflection on saint pg. 25 (if time permits).

7TH GRADE GUIDE FOR PARISHES

Unit Outlines/Overviews for 3-One Hour Lessons

GRADE 7 LESSON 2 — Unit 2: Redeemed and Called Comprehension Questions & Answers Provided for Catechist

1. What is the good news God shared with Adam and Eve after they sinned?

- The good news God shared with Adam and Eve after they sinned was that from a woman will come a child that defeats sin and death.
- The woman is Mary.
- Her child, offspring, is Christ.

**Catechist Note: This is called the protoevangelium. It is the first announcement of the coming of Christ in Scripture.

2. What is redemption?

- Redemption is transformation into something new and something whole
- Redemption affirms that the world is good. Even though we sin, there is still good that always remains.

3. The Church believes that life after sin entered the world is better than life before sin entered the world. How is this so?

- Since sin entered the world, God sent his son to earth to redeem us. Since Christ came to earth, we have the opportunity to share in his divine life which did not exist before sin entered the world.

4. Due to sin, we struggle in our relationships with God, ourselves, others, and the world. What can help us to strengthen these relationships?

- There are many things we can do to strengthen all our relationships.
  - Grace from Sacraments, especially Reconciliation and the Eucharist
    - Reconciliation: restores our relationship with God and heals us
    - Eucharist: strengthens us to choose the good and not sin
  - Prayer
  - Service to others
  - Spend time with a community of people that support us

3. ACTIVITY: Mosaic (modified) *Teacher's Guide pg. 27/Commonplace Book page 45. Prior to class: Make copies of & cut-up on the dashed lines Mosaic images (preferably on colored paper) & put in an envelope or baggie— one per student from [ruahwoods institute.org/parish](http://ruahwoods institute.org/parish)

*Modified Directions per Teacher's Guide pg. 27:

State the following: Even though we are hurt from sin in our lives, Christ came to redeem us. The cut up pieces represent our life now. We are broken and at times struggle to have hope that things can get better. These cut up pieces of paper are not a waste, just as our life is not a waste. Pope St. John Paul II once said, "I plead with you – never, ever give up on hope." There is a message of hope among the pieces I have given each group. Put the pieces back together to figure out what the message of hope is. Have the students tape the pieces together or glue them on a separate blank white piece of paper.

Unit Outlines/Overviews for 3-One Hour Lessons

Short Activity In-Class Discussion:

After students have put the pieces together, have students turn to page 45 in the Commonplace Book to write down some thoughts to discuss about the following questions you will read aloud.

1. What image did you see when the pieces of paper were put together?
2. What is the message of hope this image sends?
3. How do the ripped-up pieces of paper and the image compare to our lives?
4. What can you do within the next week or next couple weeks to let Christ come and heal you?

4. SAINTS & HEROES: Saint Columba of Ireland: Teacher's Guide pg. 28/Commonplace pg.46 + student reflection on saint pg. 47 (if time permits).

Unit Outlines/Overviews for 3-One Hour Lessons

GRADE 7 LESSON 3 — Unit 6 The Spousal Meaning of the Body Comprehension Questions & Answers Provided for Catechist

1. How does the body speak a language? Give an example.

- The body speaks a language because the body has the power to speak without words.
- An example is when a person has a smile on their face. You can tell by looking at the person's body that they are happy.

**Catechist Note: This is called body language and language of the body.

2. What message does the language of the body speak just by a human person existing?

- The message the language of the body speaks just by a human person existing is that human life is a gift and human persons are called to make a gift of self, which is showing love.

3. What is the filial meaning of the body?

- The filial meaning of the body is that my life is a gift and I am called to receive that gift.

4. What is the spousal meaning of the body?

- The spousal meaning of the body is that I am called to use my body to be a gift of self to others and to accept the love others show me. (Summary: I am called to give and receive love.)

**Catechist Note: To be a gift of self is to show love.

5. What is the standard God sets for what it means to show spousal love?

- God's relationship with the world shows us that the standard for spousal love is to love totally, faithfully, and fruitfully.
- We see this specifically in Christ, the second person of the Trinity.

**Catechist Note: Christ loved totally by giving his whole body to us on the cross. Christ loved faithfully by continually loving us and not abandoning us even though we are wounded by sin. Christ's love is fruitful because it gives us life, specifically eternal life when we get to heaven.

**Catechist Note: The other standard God sets for spousal love is to love freely. This means we choose to be a gift of self and are not forced to do something for another. Love is only authentic love if it is freely given. This specific standard is not specifically stated in this unit.

6. How are vocations connected to the spousal meaning of the body (giving and receiving love)?

- All human persons are called to recognize the spousal meaning of their body. Vocations are specific ways we are called to live out being a gift of self to others and receiving love from others.

**Catechist Note: The word vocation comes from the Latin word vocare, which means to call.
